

Our Culture Statement:

“The RubinBrown culture enables and encourages high performing individuals to work together as one firm. The teamwork within the firm makes all members approachable and responsive which promotes a sense of belonging. Our culture inspires all of us to grow through our shared experiences in an entrepreneurial, open, caring and family environment.”

We are proud of our culture, integrity, professionalism and an open door atmosphere form the foundation of our success - our culture - our approach - our mutual respect.

In assignments, we do our best to coordinate your schedule and travel with your personal interests and commitments, providing opportunities to travel the world.

In the clients served through diversified services and products, RubinBrown has become an industry leader. Our client base consists of privately-held companies, family-owned businesses and publicly traded corporations.

In people - our team members are professionals with interests uniquely their own, and we treat each other with dignity and respect. We realize the importance of diversity—it is part of our values and our culture. Integrity, teamwork, mutual respect, enthusiasm and commitment are all key to our business strategy and our personal growth. We are committed to maximizing your individual contribution, valuing your uniqueness and respecting differences.

In "atmosphere" - more relaxed and less structured than at most traditional accounting firms, RubinBrown encourages teamwork. A group of team members are elected semiannually to form our RubinBrown Advisory Board, which represents the views of team members to management. A series of roundtable meetings are also held throughout the year whereby the views and ideas of team members are solicited.

In community - we encourage all team members to become involved in our community. Many members of our Firm are active participants in civic, charitable and social organizations. Sporting and social activities are a big part of the RubinBrown story.

In fun - our team members enjoy participating in sporting activities such as volleyball, basketball, softball, soccer, racquetball or golf and the many social events during the year.
