

Tim Anderson, CPA

Partner

📞 314.678.3545

@ tim.anderson@rubinbrown.com

Tim Anderson is a Partner in RubinBrown's Real Estate Services and Tax Services Groups with more than eight years of accounting experience. He primarily serves real estate clients that develop or invest in affordable housing tax credit projects, historic rehabilitation tax credit projects, new markets tax credit projects, renewable energy tax credit projects and real estate investment funds.

Tim started his career with RubinBrown after earning his Masters in Accountancy, first as a Tax Accountant and later as a Real Estate Tax Manager. Prior to rejoining the firm, he worked for Twain Financial Partners, where he specialized in accounting and treasury management for real estate investment transactions.

Specific Experience/Expertise

- Low-income housing tax credits
- Historic rehabilitation tax credits
- New markets tax credits
- Renewable energy tax credits
- Real estate partnerships
- Real estate investment funds
- Real estate developers and syndicators
- Corporate, partnership and individual taxation

Education

- MAcc, University of Missouri – St. Louis
- B.S., Accounting, University of Missouri – St. Louis

Professional Organizations

- Member, American Institute of Certified Public Accountants