

Joel Schneider

Partner

☎ 312.705.1724

@ joel.schneider@rubinbrown.com

Joel Schneider is a Partner in RubinBrown's Business Advisory Services Group. He has extensive experience in strategic systems planning, identifying needs and implementing systems that achieve clients' objectives. His background focuses on management consulting, systems and software integration, business process optimization, and information technology strategy consulting. Joel's industry focus is in manufacturing & distribution, not-for-profit, associations, local governments, professional services, and construction.

Before joining with RubinBrown, Joel was the President of Liberty Technology Advisors.

Specific Experience/Expertise

- ERP evaluations, implementations, project management, and project rescue
- Information technology strategy and integration
- Software solution evaluation and selection
- Contract negotiations
- Project management
- Operations management
- Implementation management
- Merger, acquisition and related technology projects
- Process review and improvement/procedures optimization
- IT Assessment, audits and reviews

Education

- B.S., Business Management and Administration, Bradley University

Community Involvement

- Director of Western Golf Association/Evans Scholars Foundation
- Board of Directors, Council for Jewish Elderly