

Eric Stranghoener

Partner

📞 314.678.3533

@ eric.stranghoener@rubinbrown.com

Eric Stranghoener is the Partner-In-Charge of Strategic Client Development at RubinBrown. He works with the firm's industry and practice leaders in each market to cultivate relationships and achieve strategic growth plans.

His areas of specialty include strategic business planning, consultative selling, market strategy, mergers and acquisitions, client service strategies and resource development.

Specific Experience/Expertise

- Strategic business planning
- Consultative selling
- Business development
- Proposal strategy
- Presentations
- Market strategy
- Trend analysis
- Project management
- Mergers and acquisitions
- Client strategies

Education

- B.S.B.A, Marketing, University of Missouri – Columbia

Professional Organizations

- Member, Major Firms Group – Growth Council
- Former Member, Association for Corporate Growth
- Former Member, RubinBrown Advisory Board

Community Involvement

- Board Member, Mercy Health Foundation
 - Co-Chair, Benefit for Mercy Kids Gala (2022 and 2023)
 - Member, Development Committee
- President, Trinity Lutheran Church (2015-Present)
- Former Chairman, RubinBrown United Way Campaign
- United Way of Greater St. Louis
 - Former Member, Men's Leadership Society and Young Leadership Society Cabinets
- Honoree, Multiple Sclerosis Society, Corporate Achievers Program (2015)