

Ted Williamson, CPA

Partner

📞 314.678.3534

@ ted.williamson@rubinbrown.com

Ted Williamson is a Partner in RubinBrown's Assurance Services Group with 22 years of professional accounting experience. Ted primarily focuses on clients in the public sector, gaming, not-for-profit, and college and university sectors. Ted is Vice Chair of RubinBrown's Public Sector Services Group and also serves as lead audit and quality control partner for multiple gaming clients.

Ted is a peer reviewer listed in the AICPA peer reviewer database, with designated governmental, not-for-profit, and gaming expertise.

Before joining RubinBrown, he served as a senior manager at KPMG LLP.

Specific Experience/Expertise

- City and county governments
- Uniform Guidance single audits
- Not-for-profit organizations
- Public and private colleges and universities
- Casino audits

Education

- B.S., Accounting and Political Science, William Jewell College

Professional Organizations

- Member, American Institute of Certified Public Accountants
 - Past Member, Private Companies Practice Section Technical Issues Committee
- Member, Missouri Society of Certified Public Accountants
 - Chair, Missouri Peer Review Executive Committee
- Member, Government Finance Officers Association
- Member, GFOA Committee on Accounting, Auditing, and Financial Reporting

Professional Accomplishments, Awards & Publications

- Frequent speaker on accounting topics at organizations such as the Government Finance Officers Association, the Missouri Society of CPA's and the Missouri Municipal League
- Presented at the National Indian Gaming Association conference

Community Involvement

- Treasurer and Board Member, Provident
 - Member, Finance Committee
 - Chair, Investment Advisory Committee,