

Amy Altholz, CPA, CGMA

Partner

☎ 314.290.3369

@ amy.altholz@rubinbrown.com

Amy Altholz is the Partner-in-Charge of RubinBrown's Not-For-Profit Services Group. She is also a Partner in the Assurance Services Group. Her experience with a variety of not-for-profit clients provides her valuable insight into the industry's best practices.

While working for RubinBrown, Amy has participated in the Baker Tilly International Exchange Program, working for Sofideec Baker Tilly in Paris, France.

Specific Experience/Expertise

- Audit
- Review
- Internal controls and operations of not-for-profits
- Attest services
- Tax returns and other filings for not-for-profits

Education

- M.S.B.A., Accounting, Washington University in St. Louis
- B.S., Accounting, Finance and Management, Washington University in St. Louis

Professional Organizations

- Member, American Institute of Certified Public Accountants
- Member, Missouri Society of Certified Public Accountants
- Adjunct Accounting Lecturer, Washington University in St. Louis

Professional Accomplishments, Awards & Publications

- Women to Watch Award – Experienced Leader, Missouri Society of Certified Public Accountants (2013)
- Community Service Award, RubinBrown (2012)

Community Involvement

- Treasurer, Operation Food Search
- Member, Finance Committee, The Women's Foundation of Greater St. Louis
- Board Member, Volunteer Lawyers and Accountants for the Arts
- Board Member, Olin School of Business Alumni Board