

Wayne Danneman, CMI

Partner

📞 314.290.3363

@ wayne.danneman@rubinbrown.com

Wayne Danneman is a Partner in RubinBrown's State and Local Tax (SALT) Services Group, where he serves as the practice leader for the sales/use tax and personal property tax compliance initiatives. During his career, Wayne has developed an expertise in the various SALT disciplines including sales/use tax, personal and real property taxation, tax incentives and credits and asset classification for tax depreciation.

Wayne has made presentations at various educational forums such as the Associated Industries of Missouri's annual tax conference and Association of General Contractors' events and served on the Institute for Professionals in Taxation Advanced Academy Committee for sales use/tax.

Specific Experience/Expertise

- Multi-state tax planning
- Audit defense
- Tax research
- Automated property tax compliance services

Education

- B.S., Accounting, Maryville University

Professional Organizations

- Certified Member, Institute for Professionals in Taxation
- Member, Associated Industries of Missouri
- Member, Volunteer Lawyers and Accountants for the Arts

Community Involvement

- Member, RubinBrown Outreach
- Volunteer, Ronald McDonald House