

Rachel Gross, CPA

Partner

📞 816.381.8768

@ rachel.gross@rubinbrown.com

Rachel Gross is a Partner in RubinBrown's Private Client Services Group. She works closely with individuals and families to deliver thoughtful tax strategies and long-term planning guidance, helping them navigate life events, trusts, gifting, and legacy considerations.

Rachel is committed to building trusted relationships and delivering personalized solutions tailored to each client's unique financial landscape.

Specific Experience/Expertise

- Tax strategy and proactive planning
- Multi-year tax projections and scenario analysis
- Individual tax consulting for complex situations
- Estate and gift tax planning
- Trust taxation and structuring considerations
- Tax implications of wealth transfers and life events
- Compliance and reporting for high-net worth families, trusts, and closely-held partnerships

Education

- Master of Accountancy, Southern New Hampshire University
- B.S., Business Administration, Park University