

Robert Rudloff, CISSP, CISA, QSA

Partner

📞 303.952.1220

@ rob.rudloff@rubinbrown.com

Rob Rudloff is a Business Advisory Services Partner at RubinBrown. Rob has over 20 years of information security experience on security reviews, mitigation, strategy and architecture development. He consults with clients on a variety of information security projects ranging from penetration testing, to security assessments, to implementation of security architectures. He began his career with the Air Force, serving at the Pentagon and the National Security Agency before transitioning to a consulting career with a Big Four firm as well as several smaller firms focusing on information security and project management. In his most recent role, he served as the Chief Information Security Officer for a large higher education institution.

Rob is a Certified Information Systems Security Professional, Information Systems Security Management Professional, Certified Cloud Security Professional, Certified Information Systems Auditor, Qualified Security Assessor, Project Management Professional and is a frequent speaker on cyber security topics.

Specific Experience/Expertise

- Quality assessment reports
- NERC CIP environment assessing security controls
- Utility industry engagement experience
- Cyber security audits and assessments
- Cloud security
- Compliance management
- Vulnerability and penetration testing
- Security architecture consulting
- Breach response planning
- Executive advisory support

Education

- Executive MBA, University of Denver, Daniels College of Business
- M.S., Systems Management (Information and Telecommunications) Capitol College
- B.A., Physics, University of Colorado at Boulder

Professional Organizations

- Member, ISACA
- PCI Professionals
- Senior Member, ISSA
- Member, Project Management Institute
- Member, (ISC)2
- Member, InfraGard

Community Involvement

- Volunteer, (ISC)2 Safe and Secure Online
- Volunteer, Boy Scouts of America